Policy on support offered to conference delegates from low GDP countries

ESCP is committed to facilitating an inclusive conference that is open to all. This policy details the support available to applicable delegates and the conditions of it being offered.

ESCP offers a financial support package for up to 5 applicants that aims to welcome delegates for whom attendance at an ESCP Conference may not ordinarily be an option.

Successful applicants must satisfy the follow criteria:

- 1) Must be employed in a relevant coloproctological role.
- 2) Must reside and practice in a country ranked 100 or higher in the World Bank's 'GDP Ranking'¹.
- 3) Must submit a report, prior to their attendance at conference, on the state of coloproctology in their country.
- 4) Must be an ESCP member at the time of applying.

The support offered to successful applicants includes:

- 1) Complimentary registration to the annual ESCP Conference, including a ticket to the Conference Dinner.
- 2) Complimentary accommodation in the city of the ESCP Conference.
- 3) Travel bursary of up to €1000 (travel will be booked for successful applicants by ESCP).

Should you wish to apply, please submit a short CV and covering letter to info@escp.eu.com by June 23rd 2017.

Applications will be assessed by ESCP Committee Members and all applicants will be advised of the outcome via email by July 7th 2017.
